

2018 MSC Sailors' Gatherings

You, your family and guests are invited to a breakfast buffet from 9:00am – 9:50am which will be followed by our guest speaker(s) from 10:00am – 12:00noon.

January 27

Racing Rules according to Coach Thomas Fogh

Thomas presents a little different view of the rules.

Presenter: Thomas Fogh, OSA Coach, Pan Am Games Coach

February 10

Bird Studies Canada

Bird Studies Canada is our country's leading science-based bird conservation organization. The organization is supported by community efforts and donations. Back by popular demand, Emily Rondel will be discussing some new topics.

Presenter: Emily Rondel

www.birdscanada.org

February 24

Social Session

Though no formal presentation is planned, the usual full buffet breakfast will be served. Come and share a hearty breakfast and stay to chat with your fellow sailors on this mid-winter weekend; catch up, strategize about your planned off season repairs and tune-ups, commiserate about the cold and the snow and daydream about the upcoming sailing season.

Mar 10

Round Table Discussion on Sailing

Join in a lively discussion on sailing ideas, knowledge, techniques, and experiences with four of our seasoned members. Participation by all in attendance is welcomed.

Panel: Dave Daniel, Mike Duncan, David Pugh and Dave Tebbitt

March 24

Gardening

An engaging presentation on the joys and frustrations of gardening. There will be something for everyone. Bring your green thumbs and your questions.

Presenter: Sheridan Nurseries

April 7

Wild Ontario

Wild Ontario is a live-animal, environmental education program based at the University of Guelph. Come and meet some members of the raptor family (hawk, falcon, owl). Learn about raptor biology and how human impact has affected these guests. All of the Wild Ontario's raptors visiting the club are non-releasable as a result of encounters with people.

Presenter: Wild Ontario

www.wildontario.ca

April 21

Upwind and Downwind Sailing

Strategizing upwind and downwind sailing.

Presenter: Thomas Fogh, OSA Coach, Pan Am Games Coach

Bring your questions, ideas and thoughts. The speakers want to hear from you.